

“Forum contributes to life improvement and generates a positive impact around you”.

+ INFO

Forum is a small group of people who meet regularly with the purpose of exchanging ideas and experiences on the important issues of their lives.

Why it works

Always Confidentiality

Be mentally and emotionally present

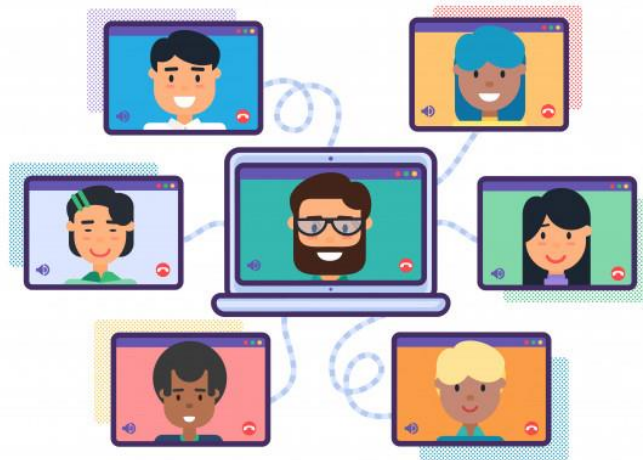

Active listening and Non-judgmental

Time management & Agenda

Fun learning environment

How we do it

- We work in an environment of maximum confidentiality and trust, sharing personal, family and professional concerns, benefiting from the diversity of experiences and the support of group members.
- The group is facilitated by a moderator, and is based on a structured agenda that lasts between two to four hours. Working as a team using a methodology that fosters great insight to the questions that are raised.

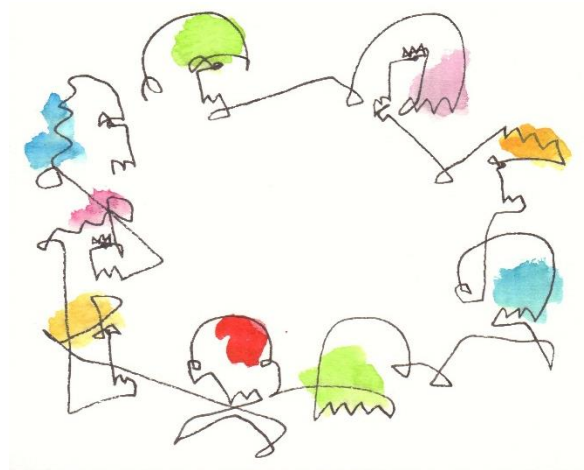

Benefits

- Through practice, Communication, Coaching and Leadership skills are developed, such as listening, empathy and conflict resolution.
- Through sharing its members learn from the experiences of others, gaining effectiveness in many aspects of their lives.
- Meaningful relationships between forum members.
